South Bay Garden Club Installs Officers' Slate

South Bay Garden Club installed new officers in the presence of 18 of their past presidents in the Redondo Beach Woman's Clubhouse. As this year was the Club's Silver Anniversary, past presidents or their representatives took part in the ceremony by lighting the candle that stood for her year before greeting the assemblage.

The club's oldest member, 102-year-old Miss Kate Hukill, Redondo, paid her respects to the new officers and greeted long time friends. Mrs. Lawrence Vernard, luncheon chairman, greeted guests and members, telling them of the luncheon's dual purpose. Although it is primarily an installation event, by being prepared and served by the members, the entire proceeds will go into the scholarship fund that is awarded a student in horticulture each year.

Spring flowers decorated the tables and the stage and orchid corsages were presented to the honored guests. Mrs. Richard Maben, installing officer, presented each incoming officer with a china tea cup from which the tea leaves were read, charging them with their oath of office. As each accepted their duties, Mrs. C. P. Mason, retiring president, lighted a candle in the floral arrangement on the head table. New officers taking the oath of office were Mrs. Harvey Klein, Torrance, president; Mrs. C. P. Corliss, Redondo, vice president; Mrs. James Martin, Manhattan, recording secretary; Miss Helen Fisher, Redondo, treasurer; Mrs. Lawrence Vernard, Manhattan, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Richard Maben, Redondo, parliamentary; and Mrs. C. P. Mason, Redondo, director-at-large.

Jewel Toned Accessories Accent Fashions at Spool, Bobbin Show

ACCORDION ENTERTAINERS—Linda M. Justie, 11, and Connie M. Luongo, 12, were among the students from the South Bay Music School, Redondo, who played their accordions for the members and guests of the Women's Club of Hawthorne last week. The girls played solos, "Coast to Coast March" and "Two Guitars." The Accordion Band played selections under the direction of Peggy Parke.

An evening of fashion and fun was enjoyed by members and guests of the Torrance Junior Woman's Club, Marina District, CFWC, at the "Spool and Bobbin" show held Wednesday evening at the Clubhouse.

All Fashions displayed were sewn and modeled by the Juniors. Commentary was done by Mrs. T. J. Burchfield who gave a brief description of each dress, including pattern number, cost and total hours spent on construction. The show reflected the current fashion delight in color by blossoming out in all the latest and most exciting shades. White with jeweled-toned accessories were also popular. Playclothes, casual and sports wear were featured.

Mother and daughter outfits and all styles of children's wear were displayed. Great interest was shown in a floor-length patio dress and a pencil-slim satin evening gown that had an enormous Japanese "obi" sash.

Mrs. Elgin Logsdon, chairman, stated that the show demonstrated once again that it does not take a great deal of money to be fashionable. The average cost of many of the outfits shown was between three and eight dollars.

On stage, an arch covered with flowers and ivy provided a most effective background as each model was introduced. The tables were decorated with baskets of flowers and flower-covered programs were prepared. Decorations were handled by Mrs. Clayton T. Lilley and her committee Mmes. Ronald Forrestal, Richard Dorothy, Edward Felkel, Richard Oliver and C. L. Briner. Hostess for the evening was Mrs. B. R. McRee.

Appearing in the show are Mmes. Edward Allen and daughter; Cindy and Sunny; Charles Bennett, Kenneth Boulter and daughter; Suzie; Don Carlson; Jack C. Dean, William Faulds and daughters; Gave, Deryl and Sherrilee; Lois Felando, Edward Felkel and daughter Sharon; Richard Folk; Ronald Forrestal and daughter Annette; Donald French and daughters Deborah, Becky and Deanna; W. H. Gardner; J. A. Perry; John M. Stokley and daughters Ruth Ann, Suzan and Barby; Robert Vroman and daughter Wendy; Dely Stromme and daughter Janelle; and Louise Warden and medaughter Diane. Also modeling were Kathy Crandall, Susan Worthy, Sandy Lilley, Janet Logsdon and Nancy West, daughters of the club members.
